Consulting as career path for scientists

- get to know 'Alira Health' -

Tuesday, 24th of April 2018 - 6.45 pm

small seminar room CSD building, Feodor-Lynen-Str. 17

- with Dr Michal Raciborski and Dr Martin Pöhlchen from Alira Health

Dear Bachelor and Master students, dear PhDs and Postdocs, there are many career paths for a scientist, but have you ever considered consulting? You are cordially invited to a presentation by Dr Michal Raciborski from Alira Health about the company and his career as a healthcare consultant. Alira Health offers a world of opportunity for those who are passionate about advancing healthcare and life science innovation!

You're very welcome to join the speakers for the get together after the event. Snacks and drinks provided :)
